7.3 Remuneration. The remuneration of all officers elected or appointed by the board shall be determined from time to time by resolution of the board. The fact that any officer or employee is a member of the Corporation shall not disqualify the person from receiving such remuneration as an officer or employee as may be determined.

PART 9 - MEMBERS' MEETINGS

9.1 Annual Meeting. Subject to compliance with section 293 of the Act, the annual meeting of the members shall be held on such day in each year and at such time as the directors may by resolution determine at any place within Ontario or, in the absence of such determination, at the place where the head office of the Corporation is located. The annual meeting shall be for the purpose of receiving reports and statements required by the Act to be placed before an annual meeting, electing directors, appointing auditors and for the transaction of such other business that may properly be brought before the meeting.

9.4 Means of Meeting. A meeting of members may be held if all such persons entitled to vote thereat are present in person, or if those not present waive notice in writing or otherwise consent to the meeting being held. A meeting of the members may be held by telephonic or electronic means and a member who, through those means, votes at the meeting or establishes a communications link to the meeting is deemed for the purposes of this Act to be present at the meeting.

9.5 Persons Entitled to Attend Meeting. The only persons entitled to attend a meeting of the members shall be those entitled to vote thereat, the auditors of the Corporation and others who, although not entitled to vote, are entitled or required under any provision of the Act or the by-laws to be present at the meeting. Any other person may be admitted only on the invitation of the chair of the meeting or with the consent of the meeting.

9.6 Omission of Notice. The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting or any irregularity in the notice of any meeting or the non-receipt of any notice by any member or members or by the auditor of the Corporation shall not invalidate any resolutions passed or any proceedings taken at any meeting of members.

9.7 Votes. Every question submitted to any meeting of members shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands and in the case of an equality of votes the chair of the meeting shall not both on a show of hands and at a poll be entitled to a second or casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which the chair may be otherwise entitled. If a meeting is held by telephonic or electronic means, the chair of the meeting may implement a process approximating a show of hands. Every question shall, unless otherwise required by the Act, Regulations or by-laws, be determined by the majority of the votes duly cast on the question.

No member shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of members of the Corporation unless the person has paid all dues or fees, if any, then payable by the person.

At any meeting of members unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chair of the meeting that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.

A poll may be demanded either before or after any vote by show of hands by any person entitled to vote at the meeting. If at any meeting a poll is demanded on the election of a chair of the meeting or on the question of adjournment, it shall be taken forthwith without adjournment. If at any meeting a poll is demanded on any other question or as to the election of directors, the vote shall be taken by ballot in such manner and either at once, later in the meeting or after adjournment as the chair of the meeting directs. The result of a poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

9.8 Chair of the Meeting. In the event that:

(a) the President is absent; and

(b) there is no Vice-President present who is a director and a member, then the persons who are present and entitled to vote shall choose another director as chair of the meeting. If no director is present or if all the directors present decline to take the chair, then the persons who are present and entitled to vote shall choose one of such persons to be chair.

9.9 Written Resolutions. A resolution in writing, signed by all the members entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of members, is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of members.

9.10 Adjournment. The chair of any meeting of members may, with the consent of the meeting and subject to such conditions as the meeting decides, adjourn the same from time to time to a fixed time and place and no notice of such adjournment need be given to the members. 9.11 Quorum. A quorum at any meeting of the members shall be persons present being not less than ten (10) in number. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless the requisite quorum be present at the time of the transaction of such business. If a quorum is not present at the time appointed for a meeting of members or within such reasonable time thereafter as the members present may determine, the persons present and entitled to vote may adjourn the meeting to a fixed time and place but may not transact any other business and the provisions of section 9.3 with regard to notice shall apply to such adjournment.

11.4 Omissions and Errors. The accidental omission to give any notice to any member, director, officer or auditor or the non-receipt of any notice by any member, director, officer or auditor or any error in any notice not affecting the substance thereof shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting held pursuant to such notice.

11.5 Waiver of Notice. Any member, any director, officer or auditor may waive any notice required to be given and such waiver, whether given before or after the meeting or other event of which notice is required to be given, shall cure any default in giving such notice.
